

This photograph shows Queen Wilhelmina seated on her throne reading the speech at the recent opening of the Dutch Parliament. The vacant seats are those of the Socialist members, who declined to be present.

Underwood & Underwood.

Gen. Pershing is seen here leaving the Elysee after his reception by President Millerand of France. Ambassador Herrick is in the rear to the left (c) Keystone View Co.

Carol Penn with her blue ribbon winner, Syrian Artist, photographed at the Piping Rock Horse Show.

Paul Thompson.

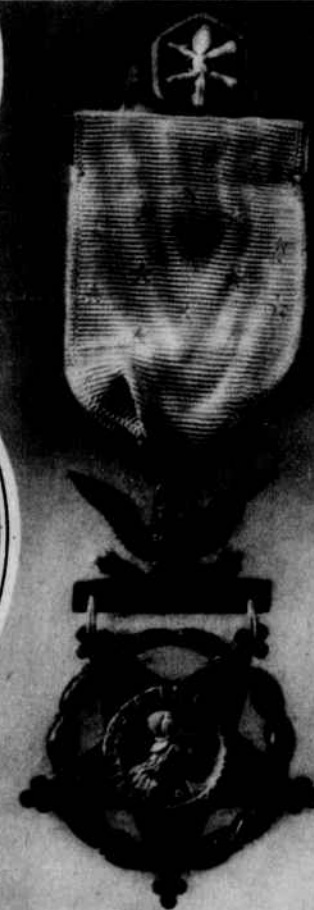

Gen. Asher Miner, who commanded the 109th artillery in the war, is on the way back to France with his son, Major Robert C. Miner, to revisit the battlefields.

Underwood & Underwood.

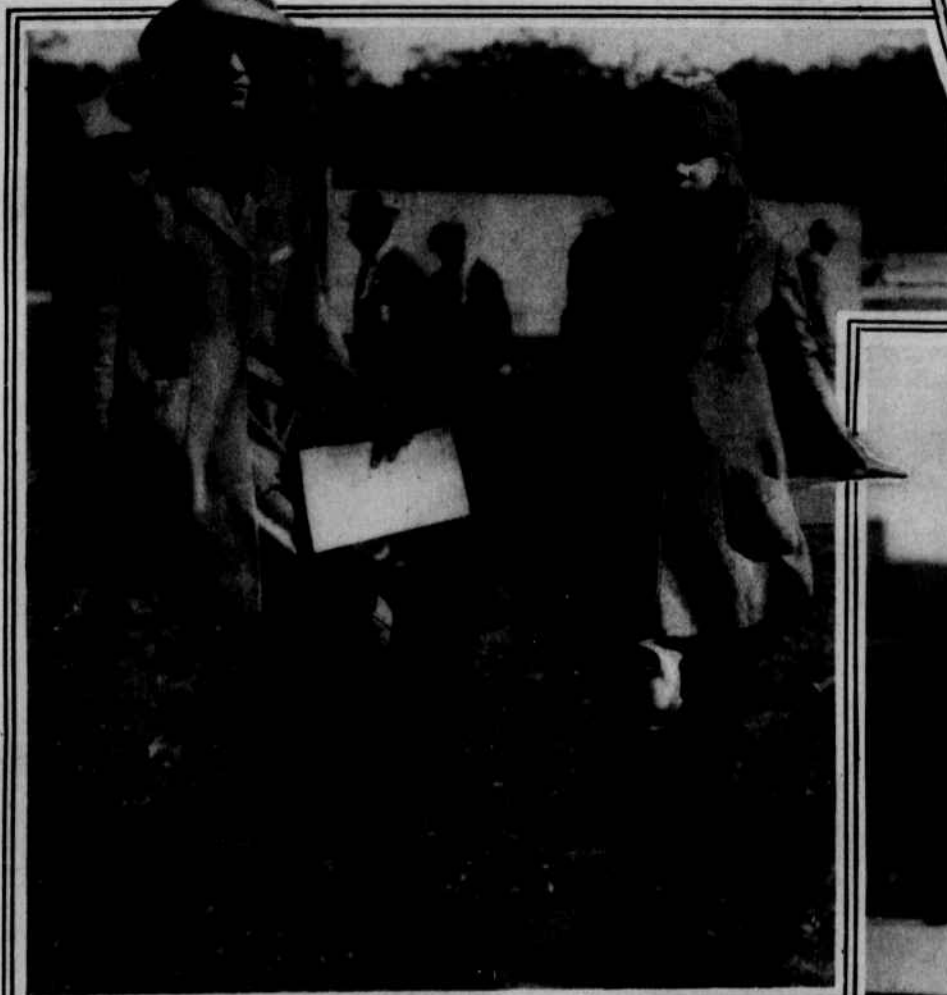

Mrs. Arthur Osgood Choate, National President of the Girl Scouts, who has designated this as National Girl Scout Thrift Week.

The Congressional Medal of Honor, highest U. S. military award, with which Gen. Pershing decorated the tomb of the unknown French soldier in Paris.

Underwood & Underwood.

Two youthful equestriennes at the Piping Rock show. They are the Misses Anne and Polly Brokaw.

Central News.

Misses Frances Ottley and Natalie Coe watching the judging at Locust Valley.

Central News.

Miss Constance E. Fahys with her exhibit, Scotty, blue ribbon winner in the novice saddle horse class at Piping Rock.

On the left is Miss Marion Hollins of Westbrook, L. I., the new national woman's amateur golf champion. To the right of the cup is Miss Alexa Stirling, holder of the title for five years.